

FAQs about the Agenda App

For many years ACCI had a printed agenda. This year, the agenda will not be printed, but will be in an App that you may download on your phone, tablet, or on your computer. You will be able to print the agenda from the computer version and bring that with you to the conference, if you prefer!

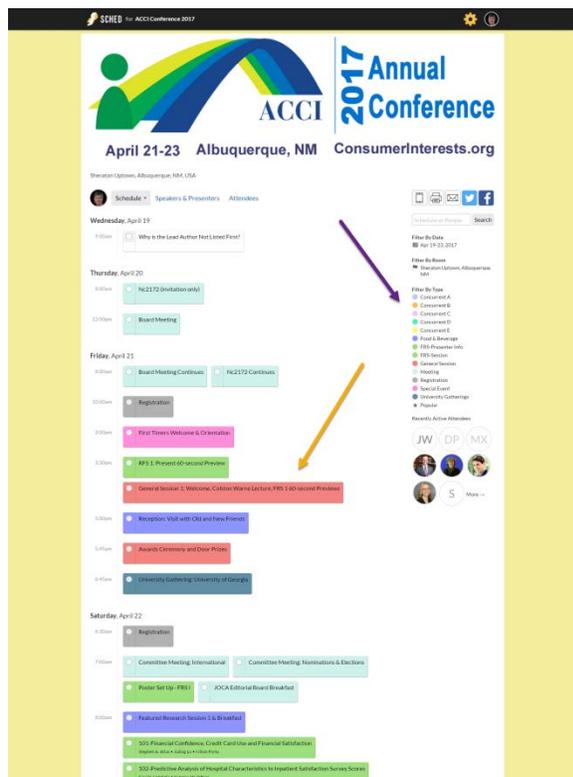

Where do I get the app?

Go to <http://ACCIConference2017.sched.com>

How do I download it on my phone or tablet?

Please read this page: <https://acciconference2017.sched.com/mobile-site>

How do find what I want to see?

Look at the purple arrow in this screen shot. This is your Table of Contents. Hover over these to see secondary menus pop up. You can filter by day, or you can just see all the offerings happening in Concurrent B, which will help you pick which session to attend.

If you follow the yellow arrow, and click on a session or meeting, you will be able to read more about it, see the room assignment, and who is presenting (which can link to their biosketch).

Why does John Grable have his picture there and I don't?? I am presenting too!

Well, John found the email from Sched.com and followed his personal link that the ACCI office sent him. Your link may be in your spam folder. He followed that link and edited his entry. Look at what else he added, and you can too!

Why are there some people listed as attendees and I am not?

You can also indicate that you are attending. Once you sign up as an attendee, you can use the app to pre-select and remember what you wanted to attend! It becomes a personal agenda and if you look at this page, it can actually add these events to your personal calendar.

BUT, I don't like this and really, really want a paper agenda!!

This will work for you too. But, you have to go to the site on your computer. Remember, the site is <http://ACCIconference2017.sched.com>. Once there look for this in the upper right-hand corner of your screen.

Click on the printer and you will be able to print something like this:

Once printed, however, you will not get any of the updates that happen in real time, such as if we have to change a room assignment.

I am not getting emails from Sched.com like everyone else.

First, you have to be signed up as an attendee to get emails. Then, please go to your email service and make Sched.com a “safe sender” in your system.

I am really confused and need help.

Please call the ACCI office and we will walk you through this. We will also be able to help you when we are in Albuquerque. The phone number is 727-940-2658 x 2002.
