ACCI Annual Meeting

“Enhancing Consumer Well-being: Equity and Resilience”

Pittsburgh, PA, USA 2025

April 15-17. 2025

ACCI's Purpose

The American Council on Consumer Interests (ACCI) is a 501c3 non-profit organization, founded in 1953 by academics and researchers passionate about protecting and educating consumers.

The mission of ACCI is to enhance consumer and family economic well-being.

ACCI fulfills its mission through activities that include:

- A peer-reviewed, multidisciplinary journal that publishes cutting edge scholarship focusing on consumer and family economic issues,
- A multidisciplinary conference where high quality scholarship on consumer and family economic issues is presented and discussed,
- Awards that recognize research as well as service in the areas of consumer science; and
- Special projects that promote the exchange of ideas among those interested in consumer and family economic issues

Go beyond advertising

ACCI's annual meeting is the premier meeting presenting the latest research in the field of consumer interests.

- Connect with members and attendees, people deeply committed to the consumers' interest.
- Grow visibility for your university, resulting in recruiting high quality students for your Master and Doctoral programs.
- Promote your commitment to consumer knowledge and research while growing visibility for your business, government consumer-related entity, or your NGO.
- Expand the exposure of the latest consumer research.
